

NOTICE OF NONDISCRIMINATION

Discrimination is against the law. UNC Health and its affiliated Network Entities comply with applicable Federal civil rights laws and do not discriminate, exclude, or treat people less favorably based on race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

This Notice may be found on the UNC Health Internet homepage at unchealth.org.

A. Free Aids and Services

UNC Health and its affiliated Network Entities provide:

- Reasonable accommodations to people with disabilities, including free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:
  - Qualified sign language interpreters
  - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, and other formats)
- Free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
  - Qualified interpreters and translation services
  - Information written in other languages

If you need to receive these services, contact the individual identified below (Section C), for the Network Entity location where you are receiving services.

B. Grievances

If you believe that UNC Health or an affiliated Network Entity has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin (including limited English proficiency and primary language), age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with individuals listed in Section C below, depending on where you are receiving services. You can file a grievance in person or by mail, fax, or e-mail as listed for each location.
